CHICAGO, ILL., APRIL 20, 1897.

CUSHING'S HARD LUCK DAY.

Big Jim Cushing is having all kinds of bad luck at Forsyth. Yesterday he furnished two odds on favorites in Selden and Miss Hoy, both of which ran pounds better than anything else in their races, but racing luck beat both.

Considering Selden's second to Sullross Friday, he seemed in a soft spot, and was heavily backed by the public at a short price. Clay rode him and after being shut off and interfered with about a dozen times, managed to finish second.

Cushing screamed a bit about this defeat, but after the Miss Hoy race he threw up both hands—some say he never will stop kicking or get them down.

Miss Hoy was bumped into shortly after the start and although she ran a game true race could not get up in time. Had the distance been half a furlong farther, however, she would have won.

Cushing furnished the third favorite in Harry Shannon. This time, luck was with him, Harry O'Fallon—Peony colt—defeating his field easily.

Just how good Ben Waddell is, is hard to judge, but taking yesterday's race for a line, he holds the selling division at the track safe. He was favorite over a good lot in the fourth race and won like a gentleman. Gouin rode him, and handled him beautifully. He was interfered with early, but went to his field when ready on the back stretch.

Dorsey threw the race away on Siegfried in the fifth race at the post. He got the black colt off in front, but evidently thinking it no go, pulled him up.

Foster Bros.' Abuse was badly hurt in his race Saturday. His owners say he will remain in the stable for some time.

It was reported that the Dwyer crack, Harry Reed, had lung fever and will be declared out of all the spring stakes.

Eugene Leigh, fat and healthy, from San Francisco, was at Forsyth yesterday. He reports the California sport excellent and the best place in the country to winter a horse. Col. Leigh has lost some money and his moustache.
